

Legislative Youth Advisory Council Application

The Washington State Legislative Youth Advisory Council is a 22-member council of 14-18 year-old students from across the state of Washington. Applications to the Council are reviewed by the Council and final selection is conducted by the Office of the Lieutenant Governor. Half of the Council (eleven students) is replaced every year. Students then serve for two years.

Meetings are held three to six times per year, usually every other month. So far they have been held either in Olympia or the greater Seattle area, but there may be meetings in other areas in the future. Students are expected to attend every meeting they can, and travel expenses are covered. Occasionally meetings are planned during the school week, especially during session; so many students have to take a day off from school. Meetings are usually one day events, but there are occasional overnight meetings.

Outside of meetings, Council members are asked to continue the Council's work by contacting legislators to advise on pending legislation, drafting letters and legislative reports, and reaching out to other youth groups.

Applications are due by July 2, 2007. Please note that a teacher's evaluation is required. If you have any questions, please contact the Council by emailing lyac@leg.wa.gov.
